SURVEY SUMMARY

1. What things work well and what things work poorly outside and inside the building relative to the principles of universal design?

2. How might the outside and inside of the building be modified and improved to make it more universally useable?

3. What aspects of the building meet the minimum ADA Standards for Accessible Design but are NOT universally usable?

4. How might the outside and inside of the building be modified and improved to better comply with ADA Standards?

5. In general, how well does the building's design support its intended function and the participation of diverse users?