Tips:

- Keep it short (under 500 words or about 2 paragraphs).
- Try to only develop one idea per assignment to make your response strong and concise.
- Always use proper etiquette, and sensitive and respectful language to refer to groups of people.
- Connect to prior knowledge by bringing in related work experience, prior coursework, or outside readings.
- You may quote the readings or videos...but don't stop there! Do your best to add value and insight to the topic.
- Ask questions for which you want to find answers.
- Discuss what you found intriguing or confusing.
- Share your key takeaways.
